Harley Street Hospital

As part of an ongoing project Art Contact was asked to supply artworks and accessories for the new Doctor's Lounge at the Harley Street Hospital.

Julia Brooker was commissioned to produce a number of her abstract paintings on metal using a colour palette to match the interior of the Lounge.

These paintings were then framed in a Wenge tray frames. As well as the paintings we also supplied a mirror, soft furnishings and other accessories to help create a suitable atmosphere for this lounge.
