Charles Russell Speechley

Art Contact was already familiar with Charles Russell Speechley's existing art collection as we had purchased all the artwork for Speechley Bircham and following their amalgamation with Charles Russell, Art Contact was invited to oversee and manage the relocation programme for the artwork.

In advance of the move Art Contact pre-arranged the new artwork layout for each floor onto a plan, which was presented to the client for approval. Art Contact over saw and managed the packing and labelling of the artwork, prior to moving the existing artwork to the new site.

Existing artwork from Charles Russell collection, were reviewed and re-framed to complement those from Speechley Bircham. In addition, a site specific wall sculpture by Phillip Melling was commissioned in a recess by the main reception area.
